

Journeys in Film

Inspire Global Understanding with Film Education

WHO WE ARE

A pioneer in cross-media education since 2003, Journeys in Film is the leading creator of educational resources for narrative and documentary films. A 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, we are dedicated to the use of film to promote a richer understanding of our diverse and complex world.

We partner with premier filmmakers, companies, and social impact initiatives to amplify the power of media to educate and inspire.

WHAT WE DO

We create educational materials and impact learning opportunities, such as:

- Curriculum and learning guides aligned with Common Core Standards and United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
- Discussion guides for schools, libraries, community groups, etc.
- Custom resources developed to meet the goals of specific films or social impact campaigns
- Professional Development for educators through workshops, conferences, and online platforms
- Development and education programming through film in corporate/workplace settings

Our work extends a film's reach, inspires dialogue, and promotes lifelong learning. We partner with films that:

- Bolster Media Literacy
- Celebrate Nature
- Explore Contemporary Issues
- Foster Global Understanding
- Highlight Historical Events and/or Figures
- Inspire STEM Education (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math)
- Support Social and Emotional Learning
- Tell Underrepresented Stories

OUR REACH

- Network of 40,000+ educators worldwide
- Resources used in hundreds of U.S. school districts, including LAUSD and NYC Public Schools
- Partnerships with leading organizations such as Share My Lesson (which reaches 2.1 million educators), American Heart Association, and SIE Society
